Provincial Under 18 Men's Championship Format History:

The event began in 2013 with 8 teams. The playoff involved the top four teams playing a straight knockout. In 2019, the event was increased to 12 teams in 2 groups of six playing a round robin with the top 2 teams in each group advancing to a page playoff. In 2021 the event was not played. In 2023, an open format was used with only 7 teams. They played a round robin with the second and third place teams playing off for the right to play the first place team. In 2024, 9 teams competed with a page playoff final.

Canadian Under 18 Men's Championship Format History

The event began in 2017, Teams are drawn into two pools with the top three teams in each pool advancing to the Championship round and the remaining teams playing in a seeding pool. The top four teams play in the semi-final and Final. In 2018, the format was changed to the top four teams in each pool advancing to a 8 team double knockout playoff round to determine four semi-finalist teams. The event was not held in 2020 and 2021. In 2022, the 21 teams played in three pools of 7 with the top three teams advancing to a straight knockout championship.

Provincial Final

In the four years that the Page Playoff was used to determine the champion, the winner of the 1 vs 1 game went on to win the championship on three occasions. The time the loser of the 1 vs 1 game came back to win the championship.. Teams skipped by Jordon McDonald (2019) and (2020) are the only teams to register unbeaten 7-0 records.
