Provincial

The initial championship in 2000 was played with 10 teams, in 2001 the field was expanded to 16 teams playing in a round robin format As the number of competing teams began to diminish the championship was changed to an open bonspiel format . In 2020, 6 teams played a round robin with top team getting a bye to final and teams 2 & 3 play in the semi-final. In 2022 and 2023, 5 teams competed. In 2024, 4 teams competed where a double robin draw was played followed by a final. In 2025, 5 teams played a round robin with the first place team advancing to the final against the winner of the 2nd and 3rd place game. In 2026, 6 teams competed.

Canadian

The initial Canadian Master Women's Championship was played in 2000. The original format saw a round robin draw with a straight knockout playoff. . In 2016, the format was changed to playing in two groups with the top teams in each group advancing to the Championship round robin followed by a semi final and final. In 2023, 12 teams competed, with top 4 advancing to the straight knockout playoff. In 2026, a 9 game round robin with top 4 advancing to straight knockout.

Provincial Final
The Page Playoff was introduced in 2007 and has been used 7 out of the 11 years. In other years a straight knockout was used as the competition does not obtain many teams. When the page playoff has been used, the winner of the 1 vs 2 game has gone on to win on 5 occasions. On two occasions the loser of the 1 vs 2 game has come back to win. The team coming from the 3 vs 4 winner has only won once. Teams skipped by Elaine Jones in 2007 and 2010 have unbeaten 9-0 records. In 2016 Pat Malanchuk went unbeaten with a 3-0 record and in 2025 Karen Fallis was 5-0,
