In 1970 a round robin draw was used with 4 groups of 4 playing with the winners of each group playing a straight knockout championship. In 1971 to 1985 the double knockout was used. In 1986 the semi-modified double knockout was used. In 1997, a scheduling change for the Canadian Championship resulted in the playdown being held in March with the winner representing the province at the Canadian Championship held in the fall of that year. In 2000, the event was changed to a round robin format with page playoff. In 2015, the event changed to a format with 4 pools of 4 teams with the winners plus any team with a positive record advancing to a straight knockout elimination. In 2017, a triple knockout playdown with straight knockout elimination was used. In 2021, the event was cancelled and played in the fall as an open entry with only 6 teams. In 2022, 12 teams played the triple knockout format. In 2023, 15 teams, In 2024 10 teams played with page playoff. Canadian:

The mixed championship began in 1964. A playoff format was introduced in 1980. Page playoff began in 1995. In 2005 the playoff format reverted to the top three teams. Beginning in 2015, the top four teams from the championship pool advanced to a straight knockout playoff. In 2020, the format changed to the top four teams in each group advancing to the championship pool and the remaining teams playing in a seeding pool.

Worlds

The inaugural World Mixed was played in 2015. There were 4 groups of 9 playing a round robin followed by quarter finals, semi finals and final.

Provincial Final

Starting in 2001 - 2014, 2024 the Page Playoff was used to determine the champion. In the 15 years of this playoff system, the winner of the 1 vs 2 game has gone on to win on 13 occasions. On 1 occasion the loser of the 1 vs 2 game has come back to win. The 3 vs 4 winner has only won twice. Teams skipped by Arnold Asham (2002), Dave Boehmer (2010) and Sean Grassie in 2012 and 2014 are the only teams to register unbeaten 9-0 records. In the new format Dean Dunstone (2018) and Colin Kurz (2019) and Braden Calvert (2020), Kyle Kurz (2023) have 5-0 records. In 2026, Colin Kurz was 6-0.
